Dr Alexander Fandrey

Specialist lawyer for public procurement law

Alexander advises public principals and bidders on European and national procurement procedures. He also fulfils the function of an external awarding office and handles award management. In addition to supporting public principals in proceedings under VgV, VOB/A, SektVO, KonzVgV and UVgO, he also advises companies in procurement procedures (verifying procurement documents, offer documents and complaints). A further key practice area is representing clients in review proceedings before procurement tribunals and procurement senates.
