Frederik Ulbrich

Specialist lawyer for construction and architects' law

Frederik advises and represents principals and contractors in all areas of private construction law, from contract drafting and management right through to court proceedings. In addition to advising on private contract law, Frederik regularly provides advice on architects' and engineers' law. His focus here is on the rules around the fee structure for architects and engineers and the liability of the planner.

Recent work

- Providing comprehensive advice to a Hamburg project developer on various projects (residential and commercial construction) on the drafting and negotiation of planning and construction contracts and providing support during the construction phase (value EUR 120 million)
- Ongoing advice on construction and architectural law to various Hamburg project developers throughout Germany
- Advising an offshore wind farm project in the North Sea with approx. 1400 MW realised in two phases (IAC, OSS and T&I trades)
- Various contract drafting/negotiations for a manufacturer of biomass wood firing systems
- Insurance law advice Westfield Hamburg - Überseequartier
